When I first picked up The Girl in Times Square, I had no idea it was about Spencer O'Malley from Red Leaves, so I was very pleasantly surprised - in fact, happy! Spencer stayed with me after Red Leaves since he was such a strong, compelling character who resonated with me long after I finished that book.

The Girl in Times Square - HarperCollins

The Girl In Times Square has all sorts of fun things in it: a missing girl, a police investigation, a slow-building friends-to-romance, a super dramatic family, and a grandmother that I just adored. When I started reading, I thought Amy’s disappearance would be the prevalent plot that drove the book.
