There is a great deal more to Sanguinarian Vampirism than just the need for Blood. Unfortunately it's the need for blood that tends to make our lives unnecessarily difficult. If you find you NEED blood, and it is creating difficulties in your life, I strongly suggest that you take up loving bleu rare steaks.

“As a magical system, Vampirism is concerned specifically with management of raw Starfyre. All mystical systems observe some use of energy by willpower. Vampirism is set apart because it works directly with rays and streams as they are, without overlaying a specific mythology, flavor or cultural pantheon.” —Joshua Free in The Vampyre’s Bible

Vampyre Magick: A Complete Guide for the Modern Vampire ...

It's hard sometimes, because I myself, like many others, do both. For many modern day vampyres these go hand in hand. Some of the major differences are: Modern Day Vampyres: These are those who simply participate in the act of feeding off of the life force of others to replenish their own. Be that the act of drinking blood, or taking their energy (chi/prana, whatever you prefer).
