Fiction Book Review: THE PACIFIC AND OTHER STORIES by Mark ...

The stories of The Pacific and Other Stories cover the author's customary wide range of character, place, and event — from a woman waiting for her husband as he fights in the Pacific, to an opera impresario on the canals of Venice, to a young girl who defies a Latin dictator, and thirteen other tales as well. Like those in A Dove of the East and Other Stories and Ellis Island and Other Stories, these are distinguished by gravitas and brilliance that in effortlessly running together make art.
