Her societal value was not centered around her personality or skills, but rather around her relationship and reproductive status. bridget jones's diary addresses these tough topics head-on and almost sarcastically, as few pieces do, and ensured that while this was a rom-com her self-worth did not actually fall upon a man or society's expectations of her. this movie also did a great job of tongue-in-cheek addressing sexism, inappropriate behavior from "uncles", sexual harassment, double ...
