Godly knowledge of good and evil always leads to life and away from death! The words good and evil are not merely concepts of sin and righteousness; they more aptly indicate the capacity to determine the outcome of every decision. In the Hebrew, the words evil and wicked present the concept of bending the path, corrupting our consciousness, and bringing us to a turning point.

Good and Evil | Impact Ministries

The devil, in opposition to the will of God, represents evil and tempts Christ, the personification of the character and will of God. Ary Scheffer, 1854. In religion, ethics, philosophy, and psychology " good and evil " is a very common dichotomy. In cultures with Manichaeen and Abrahamic religious influence, evil is usually perceived as the dualistic antagonistic opposite of good, in which good should prevail and evil should be defeated.

Good and evil - Wikipedia

Evil can come in an obvious form, such as a genocide. Or it can come in smaller acts of persistent harm doing, the effects of which accumulate, like parents being hostile and punitive, or a child being picked on by peers day after day for a long time. Goodness means bringing about great benefit to individuals or whole groups.
