Rape and sexual violence are used as a tactic of war in conflicts around the world. More and more, it is recognised that conflict-related sexual violence is not random or opportunistic. It is a strategy used by armed groups fighting in conflicts worldwide. Civilians — and particularly women and girls — are being targeted with sexual violence, used as a weapon of war, for a range of reasons: to persecute and destroy an ethnic group, as a 'reward' for combatants, or for financial gain.
