Once known as the "ten-minute talk," the featured presentation doesn't always last ten minutes: as chapters grow, the time allowed gets shorter. No matter the length, however, there are some important keys to showcasing your business in front of your fellow BNI members. Prepare, prepare, prepare. Make an outline or some note cards.

Doing Your Featured Presentation in BNI

Those who were nervous and those who are liars. So this particular presentation is designed to reduce, not eliminate, the nerves of somebody, especially a newbie, in BNI who is facing his or her first 10 minute presentation. This particular outline can be and is often used by speakers making a presentation anywhere from 10 minutes to 90 minutes.

Sparkle” - The ...

Let's go through a good outline for your next 10 minute presentation: The first 2 minutes tell a little about you and your business. It's not a bad idea to discuss some of your hobbies, your family or other interests. People do business with people and your audience will be looking for things they have in common with you.

Commonalities are the foundation of trust. Be careful not to take up the entire 10 minutes here. Try to keep this part under 2 minutes.
