Since each of the books in Roger Zelazny's the "Chronicles of Amber" series (both the Corwin and the Merlin sub-series) flows from one to the next without pause or summary, they really can't be rated individually. This book, "The Hand of Oberon (The Chronicles of Amber Book 4)", though, is a bit better in one sense, but a bit less good in another. For the positive, here is where Zelazny starts revealing what's really been happening behind the scenes.
