Liberalism is derived from two related features of Western culture. The first is the West's preoccupation with individuality, as compared to the emphasis in other civilizations on status, caste, and tradition. Throughout much of history, the individual has been submerged in and subordinate to his clan, tribe, ethnic group, or kingdom.

What is Political Liberalism? - Britpolitics

Liberalism became a distinct movement in the Age of Enlightenment, when it became popular among Western philosophers and economists. Liberalism sought to replace the norms of hereditary privilege, state religion, absolute monarchy, the divine right of kings and traditional conservatism with representative democracy and the rule of law.

Liberalism - Wikipedia

It means political to (1) Freedom and choice. The freedom to select alternatives which are suitable. (2) Liberalism is a systematic political creed. (3) It is the manifestation of reason and toleration in the face of tradition and absolutism. (4) Freedom, equality, liberty etc. are embodied in the liberalism.

Liberalism: Introduction, Origin, Growth and Elements

The distinction between negative and positive freedom was developed further by the liberal theorist T.H. Green. He fully recognised that laws alone cannot make people good, but they can at least enable individuals to make themselves good. T.H. Green thereby reflects a non-utopian view as to what legislation can achieve (in contrast to utopian socialists such as Robert Owen).
