Philosophy without Foundations:
Rethinking Hegel (SUNY ...

In eleven tightly argued, interconnected essays, Philosophy Without Foundations presents a radical challenge to current thought first, by defending the option of a non-foundational philosophy that does not abandon objective truth, secondly, by arguing how such a non-foundational philosophy can provide modernity with its only adequate justification, and thirdly, by showing how Hegel's system can be most coherently understood as providing just such a philosophy without foundations.
