Outies (Moties, #3) by Jennifer R. Pournelle

It was touted as Mote Series Book 3 but bore little relation to the preceeding books in the series and I think it did a disservice to Larry Niven and Jerry Pournelle. It appears that the author curled up with a thesaurus to write the book. The text was also very disjointed.

Pournelle's daughter wrote this continuation of the Mote Series that began with the classic THE MOTE IN GOD'S EYE, co-authored by Niven. The two men wrote two books in the series, both classics that are somewhat difficult to read due in large part to all the political/royal family aspects of the storyline. I love both books, especially the first.
