Thief (film) - Wikipedia

Michael Kenneth Mann (born February 5, 1943) is an American director, screenwriter, and producer of film and television who is best known for his distinctive brand of stylized crime drama. His most acclaimed works include the crime films Thief (1981), Manhunter (1986), Heat (1995), Collateral (2004), and Public Enemies (2009), the historical drama The Last of the Mohicans (1992), and the docudrama The Insider (1999).

Michael Mann - Wikipedia

When Michael Mann's Thief hit theaters in March 1981, the critics rushed to praise the filmmaker's feature debut, expressing surprise at the fact such an inexperienced director could deliver a movie so intelligent and mature, with a clear vision brought to life by a steady, assured hand. But the one thing that should not be overlooked here is this: even at this starting point of his filmmaking career, even at the beginning of the eighties, Mann was anything but inexperienced.
