Nemesis Isaac Asimov

Nemesis is a science fiction novel by American writer Isaac Asimov. One of his later science fiction novels, it was published in 1989, three years before his death. The novel is loosely related to the future history of his Robot Series, Empire Series, and Foundation Series, into which Asimov attempted to integrate his science fiction output. This novel is connected to Asimov's other works by several ideas from earlier and later novels, including non-human intelligence, sentient planets, and roto

Nemesis (Asimov novel) - Wikipedia

Nemesis was written near the end of Asimov's life and career. It is possible to argue that his best work was behind him and he should have called it a day but I think this novel is still worth a read. All the classic elements of Asimov are here.

Nemesis by Isaac Asimov - Goodreads

Nemesis is a curious little novel. It's one of the few standalone works by Isaac Asimov, meaning it's not a part of any of his epic series. The idea, Wikipedia says, came from his agent who suggested that "Hey, Zac, why don't you let this one novel be its own thing?
