Vampires | i love WEREWOLVES

In my 2e vampire campaign werewolves were fun and/or terrifying depending on whether you'd crossed them or not. Vampires and wolves lived in the same city, their territories overlapped in many ways and there was a diplomatic position under the city's prince that dealt with "negotiating" and "being an ambassador" to the werewolves.

Vampires vs. Werewolves! - Onyx

Path Forums

Vampires and Werewolves both have a long list of strength and weakness that could easily turn the tides of a battle. Werewolves are creatures of instinct and rage, whilst a Vampire is calm and calculated. A Vampire's high intelligence and speed would give them a greater advantage over their opponent.

Interestingly, sometimes werewolves are also grouped into the trio, so sometimes you'll hear discussions about "werewolves, vampires, and zombies". It's important to remember however that werewolves are very different from zombies and vampires in that they are NOT undead. Werewolves are very much alive.

Vampires vs Zombies | i love WEREWOLVES

Vampires and werewolves are very similar in that... we are very different from other creatures of the planet. If anything we should be getting along very well, and as I stated before I think most of us do get along. We pass ideas, stories, and struggles by each other in hopes that we can understand each other's situation.

War between the Vampires and Werewolves? | | i love WEREWOLVES

To start off, like vampires, werewolves also caused mass alarm in Europe during the 1500s and onwards. Back in the day people were petrified of becoming a vampire, they did all sorts of insane things to corpses and went all out to prevent vampires from coming into being, there were even "experts" that wrote multiple pamphlets on the subject to inform everyone about these supposed vampire infestations.
