The Politics of Our Selves eBook by Amy Allen ...

The Politics of Our Selves begins by rethinking the Foucault/Habermas debate -- a debate that centers on the place of critique in the network of power. In reading Foucault's work, where power 'is everywhere' and is that in virtue of which agents are constructed and placed within systems of normalization and subordination, a persistent worry seems to arise: if power is absolutely everywhere, how is it possible to engage in the critique of power in such a way that we might (at least partially ...

The Politics of Our Selves: Power, Autonomy, and Gender in ...

The politics of ourselves is a subject that has been on my mind since the radical feminism of the 1970's; radicalism that lacked intellectual pursuit. Mere cultural awareness is insufficient for the right means towards change. Reason gathered of intellect and experience is the way to sensible and acceptable evolution.
