What Was I Thinking?

What Was I Thinking?
is an initiation into thinking. With a mind
that is extremely
analytical and yet
extremely capable of rendering all kinds of knowledge and experiences permeable
to each other, Jalal Toufic creates here a “summa,” but an open-ended one. He looks into the arts as if they were the privileged site of thinking, even when they inevitably fail, and still confronts his insights/thoughts with texts taken from the traditional religions
and mystics of the
past.
