A Season Beyond A Kiss

A Season Beyond I love her books but this one makes me feel like she struggled to write it. I read it years ago and didn't like it then either. So thought to read again and it took me over a month to finish it. I feel the story was in the middle when it started, the way the dream sequence in the end was a last minute thought to add to the story. When Raelynn ran away was the absolute worst ...

I was always sorry that the meeting with Raelyn was only a short story in 4 weddings and a Kiss and felt he was such a good character that he deserved more. I think that the book would have been more cohesive if the meeting had been the beginning of a Season Beyond a Kiss thus making one book. I loved the characters of Jeff and Raelyn and of course it was great to meet Brandon and Heather and ...
