Small Comforts was a big disappointment. I understand that it was a series of essays, but I still looked for, and found no consistency from one to the other. With few exceptions, these essays were not interesting nor enlightening. If you've never read Tom Bodett, I suggest you start with a different book.

Small Comforts: More Comments And Comic Pieces: Bodett ...

How small comforts encountered while working from home lightened my week. They say it's best to choose a space inside our homes where you can work beside a window. Working beside a window allows us to look out from inside; we can see the sunlight peering through, the trees swaying along to the breeze, and the shadows of leaves playing on the walls.
