FREED-is short for "freedthekreed", an early internet username I used in the mid 2000's. I performed hip hop for years and did a lot of battle rap online (I ALWAYS WON), and people started to call me "FREED" so it just stuck and it sounded really cool!. I've been creating art since I was at least 2 years old. I specialize in character art and design, having been inspired by old Hannah Berbera ...

The Art of Being Free is one of, if not my very favorite Libertarian books. And I agree, after giving a lengthy discussion of the history of liberty (and the lack thereof) Wendy makes a compelling case for basically ignoring the State in every way possible. Very Thoreau ☐ The quest to change the State may seem overwhelming and impossible ...
