The bracelets were really cute with a lot of varied designs. Enough supplies to make a quite a few, includes beads (a real plus). Though some of the steps were complicated the instructions were easy enough to follow - for both of us :) Retro for granny here, had a loom like that as a kid. Be nice to have a lid for the storage tray.

Klutz books are always really well thought out and presented. I like the fact that all the equipment required to make the bracelets is provided with the book (except scissors). Clear instructions - some needlework required so not one for small children. However, the bracelets turned out as in the pictures.
