I work in the beauty industry and have always been a fan of Leighton and his work! I thought I knew a lot about him - I didn't! This book isn't written with frills and flounces, it is a tale of an ordinary kid from Bradford who ends up leading a lifestyle of the rich and famous. What is interesting, though, is how he got there.

In theory, right up my alley. But I was really unimpressed with this book. I didn’t find any of the characters believable or likeable, and I wasn’t rooting for the romance. The main character is meant to be 22 but I felt like I was reading about a 45 year old, which is unsurprising because that’s roughly the ages of the authors.
