This meta-analysis is the first systematic and quantitative overview supporting clinically and statistically robust effects of music intervention on agitation in dementia. The analysis provides further arguments for this non-pharmacological approach and highlights needs for future systematic research reviews for the investigation of intervention types.

Effects of Music on Agitation in Dementia: A Meta-Analysis

Reflecting on the messages in his songs, Wonder said: "I think the deepest I really got into how I feel about the way things are was in 'Living For The City.' I was able to show the hurt and the anger. You still have that same mother that scrubs the floors for many, she's still doing it. Now what is that about?"

Just the bitch of living As someone you can't stand. GEORG See, each night it's, like, fantastic Tossing, turning without rest 'Cause my days at the piano With my teacher and her breasts And the music's, like, the one thing I can't even get at all And those breasts! I mean, God, please, just let those apples fall
