Nothing But Trouble Chinooks Hockey

The Seattle Chinooks have won the Stanley Cup, but it's a bitter win for superstar player Mark Bressler. Injured in a car crash months earlier, he woke up immobilized in the hospital and unable to play hockey ever again. Cranky and gloomy, he is not a very good patient, pushing away every assistant the team sends him within hours of arrival.

Gibson's return to the Seattle Chinooks hockey team in Nothing But Trouble delivers on all of the above but I didn't enjoy it quite as much as other installments in the series due to a too-unsettled heroine and a too-morose hero.

Nothing But Trouble by Rachel Gibson : All About Romance

Mark Bressler is the Captain of the Chinooks Hockey team and as a result of a car accident was severely injured and unable to complete his trek to Lord Stanley's Trophy. As a result of his horrific injuries his team was forced to move on without him and do the unthinkable. Win it all - without their Captain.
