At that time I was approached by Hemmings to see if I would be interested in providing my car for a photo shoot. They wanted a car that had been restored for an article they were considering. I naturally have a lot of pictures from that time so I could supply them with pictorial details of “Elvira’s” rebirth.

Like Satch's, my life was ruined. But more practical matters have always intervened. The closest I've come to a sports car in the years since was an '89 560 SL for five years after retirement. Now the "nascent lust" is rekindled every time Hemmings Sports & Exotic Car arrives in the mail. You've outdone yourselves with #74.
