Buddy Wakefield has fast become my favourite writer. He has a turn of phrase that's both witty and profound, and a way of exploring painful or awkward topics that finds beauty in the ugliness. 'Live For A Living' is a blend of poetry and personal stories, a way to explore the poetry and the worlds in which the poems were created.

from Live For A Living.

Hermann wants to eat nicotine sometimes. He asks for a lot. He paces space to make himself nervous because some people are better at surviving than living. If you wanna get heavy he'll teach you. He knows it. Spends his time falling from the weight. Got a lead brain. It's a battle magnet. He carries it around by the guilt straps.
