If you're going to be swapping out the 22re for more power, I'd recommend you swap in the 3.4l 5vze. It's about the same dimensions but with about 190hp and with the option of a bolt-on TRD/URD Supercharger which brings it to about 260. There are going to be a few more parts that you'd need out of a 3vze, but I believe it's worth the extra hassle.
