Peace of a Planet To come to peace, it is clearly evident that all parties must compromise to some extent, but certainly all parties should also benefit. Compromise has always been at the heart of true peace, my vision is that there will be a new transformation in our minds and that all countries will elevate their views in this matter.

Peace of a Planet - Michael Ruark

In Luke 2, peace on earth is promised to those “on whom God’s favor rests,” and in Luke 3, we see God’s extension of that peace to the world in the person of Jesus. Into the pain and brokenness of the world, God opened the heavens and made a way for peace.
